General Guidelines

What is a candidate forum?

A candidate forum allows candidates seeking public office to express their views openly so community members can understand their positions and make informed voting choices.

Format: Moderator:

- An unbiased event moderator will pose all questions to the candidates.
- Each Audience Member will be allowed two questions, written on paper provided. See rule #4
- The event moderator will maintain order and decorum for the event.
- Each candidate will have an equal and fair opportunity to express his or her position on issues. See rule #4
- A timer will be used to indicate end of time allotments. A bell will indicate that the candidate's time has elapsed.

General Forum Rules:

1. Order of appearance of candidates will be chosen at random and will be reversed for closing comments.
2. The Moderator will introduce each candidate.
3. Topics will be a wide range of issues of general interest to the public.
4. The moderator will read the questions. No interaction among candidates, audience members or other program participants is allowed. Answers to these questions on issues will be limited to 3 minutes and each candidate will be given the chance to answer.
5. Each candidate will be given 2 minutes for closing statements to wrap-up and cover any issues not yet discussed.
6. No substitutes or stand-ins for candidates are allowed, and no pre-recorded statements will be accepted.

Proper Decorum:

- * The forum is not a debate. No interaction or debate among candidates will be allowed.
- * No direct interaction of any kind will be allowed from the audience.
- * All interaction by a candidate will be through the event moderator.
- * There will be no "winner" declared by the moderator or event sponsors.
- * No 'grandstanding', speaking off topic or off-color remarks will be permitted and will be called out of order by the moderator.
- * No candidate or candidate supporters will be allowed to hand out materials, advertise, or otherwise solicit inside or outside until after the event is concluded.

The candidate's forum is meant to inform the citizens of our community and create an opportunity for community building. If all candidates adhere to the rules everyone will benefit through increased visibility and general interest in the community.
